Parish Mission Statement

We, the People of Sacred Heart Parish, have the welcoming, loving presence of Jesus Christ as the center of our life, especially in the Eucharist. Through the ministry of the La Salette Missionaries we are committed to continuing the reconciling ministry of Jesus Christ.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 19-20, 2010

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. — Galatians 3:28

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF CHRIST

The great fifty-day celebration of Easter has concluded, as have the feasts honoring the Holy Trinity and the Body and Blood of Christ. Last week we began a long stretch of Ordinary Time that will bring us to late November. Saint Paul tells us today that those who are baptized “have clothed yourselves with Christ” (Galatians 3:27). This scripture is echoed in the Church’s baptism ritual when we sing, “You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized.” This message is inspiring and sobering at the same time, for in today’s Gospel, we get to the heart of what it means to be clothed in Christ. The Lord tells us, “If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me” (Luke 9:23). For the next twenty-two weeks we are called to take up the cross and, with Saint Luke as our guide, follow in the footsteps of Christ. © Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

A Father's Prayer

This is the best dowry of hopes, wishes and prayers I would be able to offer:

May God give you the grace of wit and wisdom to understand that rainbows are only the result of showers, dust, and hope.

May you always have joy in the morning and trust in the evening and may your sorrows be short and without scars.

May your lives have a spirit neither bent by belligerence nor broken by failure; may you simply love each other.

May you share with each other spring flowers, dirty dishes, music, rain, death, mushrooms, a measure of boredom, strawberries, and God.

May that God never make you immune to the wonderful afflictions of real love, making you instead farsighted to each other's faults, tongue-tied to criticism, and short of memory to petty hurts and slights.

May God provide the confidence and serenity that comes only from the assurance of each other's fidelity and the tolerance, as years go by, of wrinkles and gray hairs, short tempers, curlers, and Monday mornings.

May no one steal from you laughter at the top of the stairs or giggles and whispers in a dark room.

May you keep a hunger for each other, the appetite to taste tomorrow, and deep knowledge of and devotion to your past, heritage and families.

May you perpetuate trust, the radiation of vitality, kind answers to sharp questions and sharp humor to unkind attitudes.

May your fights be fierce and short, and may each truce be warm and long and held in each other's arms before the sun comes up.

May you walk with wise men, sing loud songs at late hours, share secrets, have healthy children, and provide smiles for lonesome strangers and prayers for those without hope.

May you never forget small things; smiles, birthdays, holding hands, family, old friends, the neglected, and the simplicity of saying please and thank you.

May you keep a warm, generous, and happy house where love is the insulation and God is present. May your children be friends of God's child, Jesus.

May your union bring a smile to the face of the Holy Spirit and may he live in your pots and pans, in your hope and aspirations.

FATHERHOOD

A father carries pictures where his money used to be. —Anonymous

“The warmest scarf a man can wear is the arm of his little boy or girl around his neck.” It is so true.

Graduation Prayer

Father,

I have knowledge, so will You show me now, how to use it wisely and find a way somehow to make the world I live in a little better place, and make life with its problems a little bit easier to face.

Grant me faith and courage and put purpose in my days, and show me how to serve Thee in effective ways.

So my education, my knowledge and my skill may find their true fulfillment as I learn to do Thy will.

And may I ever be aware in everything I do, that knowledge comes from learning, and wisdom comes from You. Amen.

Register for VBS now

TIME to register for VBS:
If you would like to send your child, grandchild or friend's kids and haven't registered, please send in your form to the office, or complete the form online: www.sacredheartlebanon.com/vbs.htm or drop the completed form in the collection basket at mass. All students registered by June 21st will receive a free t-shirt. If you are interested, but not sure of your schedule, you may tentatively register your students- just make a note on the form. If you can attend a partial schedule (missing a few hours each day or a few days here or there) you are still welcome to come when you can. For planning purposes, it would be helpful if you make a note and let your crew leader know. If you have any questions, please call me at 603-448-4046.

Thank you, Amy Cheevers

An invitation to Eucharistic Ministers:

Our appreciative parishioners at Genesis Eldercare would enjoy your joining Jan Miles and Joanne LaCasse in bringing communion and community to them. If you have about an hour and a half once a month to share in this valuable and rewarding ministry, please contact Diane Andreas at 448-3555 or at diandreas@aol.com.

Pray For

We ask for your prayers for the following individuals:

Fr William's Mother and Father,
Fr. Gerald Baril, Fr. Gil Genest, Fr. Rene Gelinas, Bishop John McCormack, Julien Bellavance, Barry Bodkins, Rose Cloutier, John Crane, Howard Frojd, Liz Hannah, Sherry Marchewka, Kathy Rhodes, Ellie Smith, Juliette Simmons, and Viola Tremblay.

For John Craven, Storme Guaraldi, Michael Miramonti, Jeremy Sechler, Cortland Smith and all who have been deployed and their families.

VBS VOLUNTEERS: Crafts, Games, Movie Theater, Preschool helpers and Music

General needs:

If you are available to help in any way, we need more hands on deck.

Jobs for non-VBS hours include prayer, preparing craft kits, babysitting and other miscellaneous help. We will have a drop in work session doing our set up and decorating on Sunday, July 15th after the 10:30 mass. Anyone can help- especially if you don't have a child in the program.

Specific helpers needed: Chadder Theater station: Can be one morning or all week. I am looking for guest hosts of Chadder's theater- just play the movie clip for each small group of students (10-15 kids) and share the discussion questions or perform a fun experiment or stunt to illustrate the point. If you have 1/2 a vacation day, you can do this! Simply read the skit the night before to become familiar with the bible point of the day, show up at 8:45 am for prayer and finish at noon.

Music: If you play guitar or piano, we would love to have a live music leader for the opening or closing session (approx 15- 20 minutes each around 9:15 and 11:40) daily.

Games Leader and Craft Leader- all materials provided- just read from the script and guide the discussions/ activities. Looking for 2 adults full time (M-F from 8:45-12:00)

Morning helpers: The morning helper will keep the leaders' and early children busy before the beginning each morning. Responsible from 8:30-9:00 am

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the program, please contact me at 603-448-4046 or achvs2002@yahoo.com. Anyone who is working with our children must attend (or have attended) the Protecting God's Children program at St. Helena's on June 24th at 6:30 PM, pre-registration required.

MAGDALEN COLLEGE: Come for two weeks of fun, faith, and learning... Attention Teens ages 15 – 18

PARABLE MAGAZINE WINS NATIONAL AWARDS

Parable Magazine, the magazine of the Diocese of Manchester, was honored this week with three national awards by the Catholic Press Association. The awards were presented at the CPA's annual Catholic Press Awards in New Orleans on Friday, June 4, 2010.

1st place Best Personality Profile (freelance): "Living the Fundamentals," Gary BouchardA profile in the Nov/Dec 2009 issue of NBA basketball player Matt Bonner that explores his family, his life and his faith. The judges said, "An inspiring story that is full of details and emotion. Great writing and a clear first place winner."

1st place Best Illustration: 125th Anniversary Issue Cover, Cameron Bennett. Created for the special 125th Anniversary Issue, the cover shows faces and places from throughout New Hampshire's Catholic past. The judges said, "The illustration is beautifully drawn and provides multiple evocative snapshots of New Hampshire's church history."

2nd place Best Personality Profile (freelance): "Compassion Behind Prison Walls," Anne Botteri. A profile in the May/June 2009 issue of Joanne Fortier, warden of the New Hampshire State Prison for Women. The judges said, "Touching and clearly written. A good story."

To see the winners, visit www.parablemag.com. Parable Magazine tells the stories of the Catholic faithful in New Hampshire, and provides news on events and issues of the day, as well as answers to common questions about the Catholic faith. Parable Magazine reaches over 56,000 households in New Hampshire, and is available via parish subscription.

THANKS TO KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Fr. William would like to thank the Knights of Columbus, Lebanon Council for offering scholarship for four students of Sacred Heart Parish family. We appreciate your support of the parish and of the youth.
