Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July-31 August 1, 2010

— Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Psalm 90:12

VALUES TO LIVE BY

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Today's scriptures contain some catch phrases that are still quite familiar in our world: "All is vanity," and "Eat, drink, and be merry" are both scriptural in origin. In the same way that it is easy to pray last week's Lord's Prayer thoughtlessly, it is easy to let the potent passages of scripture that are built on these common sayings glide right off our slick ears. Last week's scriptures instructed us to listen attentively to the Lord, so that we might pray carefully. Our listening and our prayer are intimately connected. In the same way, this week we learn that our values and our living are connected as well. It has become quite common to ask, "Do you own your possessions or do they own you?" Copyright,

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Do not spend your life toiling for material gain (Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 90).

Second Reading — Christ has raised you to new life, so seek now what is above (Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11).

Gospel — Be on guard against all greed, for your life does not consist of earthly possessions, but of the riches of the reign of God (Luke 12:13-21).

STUEBENVILLE EAST YOUTH RETREAT - 10 PARTICIPANTS FROM SACRED HEART

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF OUR YOUTH

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY
(1786-1859) August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth." —Peter

ARE YOU THINKING OF BEING A CATECHIST?

You have been thinking of helping out in your child's classroom. But, what could you do to help?

Come and see how your special gifts can be of value in our program. We need your help in sharing Catholic teachings and laying a good foundation for the future. Classes will begin September. We need more teachers to share our faith with our children. Would you help us? Please call the parish office at 448-1262.

BUSINESS OWNERS: Now is the best time to advertise in our parish bulletin. Why? It is local advertising, it's in the area that you serve; Advertising helps promote your business throughout the community and with your fellow parishioners; Parishioners feel secure dealing with bulletin sponsors; Advertising help pay for our weekly bulletin. If you do not have a business, but personally know someone who does, please help the parish by referring that person or business. For information call:

WHAT I LEARNED FROM NOAH

Everything I need to know, I learned from Noah's Ark...

ONE: Don't miss the boat.

TWO: Remember that we are all in the same boat.

THREE: Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.

FOUR: Stay fit. When you're 60 years old, someone may ask you to do something really big.

FIVE: Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to be done.

SIX: Build your future on high ground.

SEVEN: For safety's sake, travel in pairs.

EIGHT: Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.

NINE: When you're stressed, float awhile.

TEN: Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.

HOLY ROSARY:

Devotion to Our Blessed Mother is a significant part of the La Salette community and those of us who are served by the La Salette priests. Holy

Rosary is very essential part of our Catholic tradition. To honor Mary's role and influence in our lives and to encourage our community to pray together, the Rosary will be recited at 4 PM on the first Saturday of each month. Please join us in praying this beautiful devotion. We will be asking each committee/ministry to take a turn in leading the rosary every first Saturday of the month.

EUCARISTIC ADORATION

"The act of adoration outside of Mass prolongs and intensifies all that takes place during the liturgical celebration itself." – Benedict XVI

You are invited to spend one hour in Eucharistic Adoration the second Sunday of the Month from 9-10 AM just after the 8AM Mass. Jesus himself awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet him in adoration and to listen to Him speak to our yearning hearts. Jesus, help us to know you better through this peaceful time.

HEALING OF THE MEMORIES

The truth is that we cannot remain prisoners of the past; people need a sort of "healing of the memories" so that past evils will not come back again. — from Safely Through the Storm

LET GO AND LET GOD

It is not God's will that we should grieve and sorrow over our present sufferings, but rather that we should leave them at once and keep ourselves in his everlasting joy. from Safely Through the Storm

HE HOLDS YOU

I do not pray that you may be delivered from your pains, but I pray earnestly to God that He would give you strength and patience to bear them as long as He pleases. — from Safely Through the Storm

LESSONS IN SUFFERING

In suffering we are tempted to lose hope and faith in the Lord's love and in His desire for our eternal life with Him. But that same suffering can teach us, if we let it, to turn to God and place our hope and trust in Him. — from Safely Through the Storm
