

Does Bethany's mom or dad give better advice?

Who prays in the movie?
When?

Bethany says: Who would have thought teaching a kid to surf would teach me that surfing isn't the most important thing in the world?

Bethany's church group leader quotes this passage from Jeremiah in the Bible:

"I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

What are the plans Bethany has for herself? How are they different from God's plans for her?

This is a recent picture of a woman with her husband and children. Can you guess who she is?

When does Bethany give up? What happens next?

Why does Bethany thank her rival, Malina, for "never taking it easy on me"?
